Coast Guard Sector San Francisco
Department of Homeland Security

Oil and Gas Industry Security

Members of the maritime industry should be aware of a recent Al-Jazeera videotape broadcast and an Al-Qa'ida affiliated web site posting which suggests that oil and gas infrastructure, and especially the Trans-Alaskan pipeline, are targets for Islamic terrorists.

Sensitive Security Information contained in this MSIB below the tear line discusses the Department of Homeland Security's perspective on this issue. Security Officers not already provided with the information below the tear line, with a valid need to know and a non-disclosure agreement on file with Sector San Francisco, should contact the Command Center at 415-399-3547 to obtain this information.

As always, members of the public as well as the maritime industry should be on the lookout for any suspicious behavior or activity and report it to the National Response Center (NRC) via the NRC 24-hour telephone number at 1-800-424-8802.
