CAPTAIN OF THE PORT NOTICE OF ENFORCEMENT

Notice is hereby given for the enforcement of the special local regulation for marine events, established under Title 33 Code of Federal Regulations, Section 100.1103, which allows the District Commander to create necessary local regulations to ensure the safety of life on the navigable waters immediately prior to, during, and immediately after an approved marine event.

The Coast Guard will enforce the special local regulation established in 33 CFR 100.1103 for the PICYA Opening Day on the Bay on April 26, 2009, from 12:01 p.m. to 3 p.m. The special local regulation includes the San Francisco waterfront from Crissy Field to Pier 35, and can be defined by a line drawn from Fort Point (37[deg]48.66N, 122[deg]28.64W); thence easterly approximately 5,000 yards to a point located at 37[deg]49.15N, 122[deg]25.61W; thence easterly to the Blossom Rock Bell Buoy (37[deg]49.10N, 122[deg]24.20W); thence westerly to the Northeast corner of Pier 35; thence returning along the shoreline to the point of origin. This action is necessary to control vessel traffic and to ensure the safety of event participants and spectators. During the enforcement period, no spectator shall anchor, block, loiter, nor impede the through transit of participants or official patrol vessels, in the regulated areas during all applicable effective dates and times, unless cleared to do so by or through an official patrol vessel.

PENALTY: Persons violating this special local regulation may be liable pursuant to 33 U.S.C. 1236.

The Coast Guard will enforce the special local regulation established in 33 CFR 100.1103 for the Blessing of the Fleet on April 26, 2009, from 8 a.m. to 12:01 p.m. The special local regulation includes Raccoon Straits and can be defined by a line drawn from Bluff Point to the southeastern side of Tiburon Peninsula to Point Campbell on the northern edge of Angel Island, and a line drawn from Peninsula Point on the southern edge of Tiburon Peninsula to Point Stuart on the western edge of Angel Island. This action is necessary to control vessel traffic and to ensure the safety of event participants and spectators. During the enforcement period, no spectator shall anchor, block, loiter, nor impede the through transit of participants or official patrol vessels, in the regulated areas during all applicable effective dates and times, unless cleared to do so by or through an official patrol vessel.

PENALTY: Persons violating this special local regulation may be liable pursuant to 33 U.S.C. 1236.
