

California Maritime Academy and BlueWater & Associates Announce

The workshop designed to address the question left unanswered by the Maritime Security Regulations:

“What is needed for your company’s “Maritime Security Training?”

2003 Training for Maritime Security Workshop

August 19-20, 2003

at California Maritime Academy, Vallejo, CA.

Description:

2-day Workshop focused on implementing your Training for your Maritime Security. Key Topics include:

- Learning Regulator Expectations of your Security Training
- Effective Training Protocols for Security Readiness at normal and elevated MARSEC Levels
- Understanding the Security Interface and Training coordination within the Port Infrastructure and community

1.6 CEU Credits will be awarded upon completion of workshop.

Presentation:

Cross section of knowledgeable Federal, State, and Industry representatives.

Target Audience:

Workshop for Company, Vessel, and Facility Security Officers, Railroad and MultiModal Security Officers, Passenger Vessel Security Officers, Plant Managers, Qualified Individuals, Senior Management, and Incident Commanders.

Reservation:

Class space is limited – Reserve Your Seat Now!

Includes Workshop Portfolio, Hosted Reception, Lunches, Continental Breakfasts, and Full Mission Ship Simulator Demonstration

Only $650 per Student

Contact BlueWater at (415) 492-2882

Or email at bwa@blue-h2o.com

Contact us for local Hotel Suggestions !

PANEL DISCUSSION: “MARITIME SECURITY
TRAINING PROGRAM EXPECTATIONS”

Key Presentation Topics

- Security Training Philosophy – understanding what makes effective training
- The First Year of Maritime Security
- Review of training successes and gaps from Oil Terminals in California
- Auditing Security Plan Compliance
- Effective Integration of Security Training with your Compliance Training Matrix
- Training for improved Consequence Management
- Goals and Parameters for Integrated Exercise and Drill Program
- Law Enforcement and Maritime Security Training integration
- PANEL DISCUSSION - “MARITIME SECURITY TRAINING PROGRAM EXPECTATIONS”
– with Local, State, Federal, and Law Enforcement Representatives