Starting August 30, 2012, if you hold a TWIC that expires on or before December 31, 2014 and you are a U.S. citizen or U.S. national you will be able to replace your expiring TWIC with a 3-year Extended Expiration Date (EED) TWIC.

Benefits of the EED TWIC for eligible TWIC holders:
Replacement TWICs can be obtained in three simple steps:
1. Call the TWIC Help Desk at 1-866-347-8942 (Mon–Fri, 8AM to 10PM Eastern) to confirm your eligibility.
2. Pay a $60 card replacement fee by credit card (instructions for payment by check are below).
3. Exchange your current TWIC for your new replacement EED TWIC at a TWIC Enrollment Center of your choice.
   Note: You are required to turn in your current TWIC when receiving your new TWIC.

Obtaining an EED TWIC to replace your expiring card is an option and is not required. You may instead obtain a new standard 5-year renewal card through the normal, full enrollment process. The full 5-year card renewal process requires two visits to an enrollment center and payment of the $129.75 fee.

EED TWIC Details:

If you were a United States Citizen when you enrolled for your current TWIC, TSA recommends that you request your Extended Expiration Date TWIC 30 to 45 days before the expiration date on your current TWIC.

If you were not a United States Citizen when you enrolled for your current TWIC but you are now a United States Citizen, TSA recommends you request your EED TWIC 60 days before the expiration date on your current TWIC.

Unless your current TWIC is lost, stolen, or damaged, do not request an EED TWIC more than two years before the expiration date of your current TWIC.

The expiration date on your TWIC is the date your TWIC becomes invalid. It becomes invalid on that date at the beginning of the day (12:01 AM Eastern time). If you order your Extended Expiration Date (EED) TWIC on the date shown on your TWIC, it will already have expired. For example, if the expiration date on your TWIC reads 30 JUN 2014, it will expire immediately after midnight on June 29, 2014. So if you intend to obtain an EED TWIC, you must request it before the expiration date shown on your TWIC.

The EED TWIC is a one-time temporary extension option intended to provide convenience and cost-savings to workers in advance of the deployment of TWIC readers. TWIC holders who are not U.S. citizens or U.S. nationals are required to enroll for a standard 5-year replacement upon expiration of their current TWIC.
